Litigation & Dispute Resolution

I pride myself on having in-depth knowledge of my clients' matters and basing my recommendations not only on their legal claims but on their commercial and personal best interests.

Fiona is a well-rounded practitioner specialising in commercial litigation.

Introduction

Fiona's experience has been built from her involvement in large scale Federal Court class actions and acting for high-net-worth individuals on complex matters seeking relief in equity and a range of matters acting for equity holders in business separations.

Fiona prides herself on obtaining a deep knowledge of her files to ensure that they are conducted in a way to optimise outcome and meet her clients' broader objectives with commerciality at the forefront.
