

AJ&CO

Marion
Niestroj

Partner
Litigation & Dispute
Resolution

My focus is always on achieving commercially sound outcomes – resolving complex disputes with clarity, strategy, and purpose.

Marion is a strategic commercial litigator known for resolving complex disputes across corporate, tax, and insolvency law with precision and commercial clarity.

Introduction

Marion brings over a decade of experience in commercial litigation and dispute resolution, acting in high stakes matters before the Supreme Court of Queensland and the Federal Court of Australia.

She has represented clients across a wide range of disputes, from corporate and shareholder litigation to complex class actions and tax matters.

With a strong grounding in commercial law and accounting, Marion offers clients strategic insight and sharp legal analysis. Her approach is outcomes-focused, and she is deeply committed to delivering practical, effective legal and commercial solutions.

Expertise

- Corporate and commercial litigation
- Tax disputes
- Class actions
- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Corporate and Personal Insolvency

Experience

Recent transactions of note include:

- advising and acting for clients in appeals from State and Federal Courts;
- complex multi-party litigation on the Supreme Court of Queensland Supervised Case List and Commercial List;
- alternative dispute resolution including pre-litigation negotiations,
- mediation and conciliation;
- commercial and fraud related class actions;
- disputes arising under the Australian Consumer Law and Corporations Act;
- director and shareholder disputes;
- application for statutory order of review of a Minister's decision;
- advising and acting for and against government departments in taxation and insolvency matters;
- advising insolvency appointees, creditors and directors in corporate and personal insolvency matters; and
- conduct of insolvency litigation including
- pursuing and defending voidable transaction claims.

Qualifications

- Practising since 2011
- Bachelor of Laws
- Bachelor of Business (Accounting)
- Master of Laws (Commercial Law)

Marion Niestroj
Partner

mniestroj@ajandco.com.au
0402 735 227